Spotlight!

Culture Share Fair
Thursday, Nov. 14, 7:00–8:00 p.m., Bailey Middle School
Volunteers needed to represent Latin American nations at information booths—share your knowledge of Latin America with local schoolchildren! Please contact Linda Voelzel at <lavoelzel@hotmail.com> or 740-4007 (cell phone).

Late Entries

- Thursday, Nov. 14—Handpainted Woodcuts by Willard Clark (1910–1992): The Printer Who Captured Santa Fe, a slide show and talk by Dr. David Farmer, retired director of DeGolyer Library at Southern Methodist University. 7:00 p.m., Tesoros Trading Company, 209 Congress Ave. For details, visit www.tesoros.com or contact Geoffrey Stone at 479-8377.

- Friday, Nov. 15—Classical Music Goes Latin: Classical and Popular Latin Music Benefit Concert, featuring music by Valor Latino and a buffet of traditional Latin and Central American foods. 7:00 p.m., Mexic-Arte Museum, 419 Congress Ave. $20 per family, $10 per person. Proceeds benefit Austin Chamber Music Center students belonging to Jovenes Latinos. For info. visit www.austinchambermusic.org or call 454-0026.

Thursday, Nov. 21

- Transcultural Production, Mexican Film, and Mexican-U.S. Relations in the 1950s, a presentation by UT graduate and Yale professor Seth Fein. Texas Union 3.128, Sinclair Suite, 1:00–4:00 p.m. Part of the Distinguished Speakers in Latin American History Series. Suggested readings available for copying at LLILAS and History Dept. mailboxes. For more info., e-mail Meredith Glueck at <meglueck@mail.utexas.edu>.

- PEMEX in the Decade Ahead, a lecture by Ing. Raúl Muñoz, Director General of PEMEX. Bass Lecture Hall (lower ground floor of LBJ School), 6:00–7:15 p.m. Part of the Distinguished Mexicans in Texas Lecture Series sponsored by the Mexican Center of LLILAS. For more info., call 232-2423 or e-mail <mexctr@uts.cc.utexas.edu>.
FRIDAY, NOV. 22–SATURDAY, NOV. 23
➔ UT Economics and ITAM Conference, the second annual conference hosted by the UT Dept. of Economics and the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México. BRB 2.136, 9:00 A.M.–5:10 P.M. Friday, 9:00 A.M.–5:40 P.M. Saturday. Cosponsored by LLILAS. For more info., e-mail <ching@eco.utexas.edu>.

CONFERENCES AND CALLS FOR PAPERS
➔ Robert W. Hamilton Faculty Author Awards. All UT faculty and staff who published books (including scholarly monographs), creative works, exhibition catalogues, textbooks, and edited collections during the 2001–2002 academic year may compete for awards. Grand prize: $10,000; three runners-up: $3,000; fourth prize (for a textbook): $3,000. Authors may nominate themselves by submitting two copies of their work and C.V. to the review committee on or before Nov. 27, 2002: Office of the Vice President and Dean of Graduate Studies, MAI 101, Campus Mail Code G1400. Supporting evidence may include pre-publication reviews as well as published book reviews. Underwritten by the University Co-operative Society. For more info., call 471-2877.
➔ Revista de Sociologia e Política, a political science journal of the Universidade Federal del Paraná, Curitiba, Brazil, seeks articles for an issue dedicated to the theme of “International Relations.” Submissions must be received by Nov. 30, 2002. For more info., e-mail <contacto@revistasociologiaepolitica.org.br> or visit http://www.scielo.br/rsocp.
➔ Graduate Student Conference on Twentieth-Century Latin America, March 1, 2003, Columbia University History Dept., New York. Conference will focus on modern Latin America, including late nineteenth century, from a variety of disciplinary fields, with 4–5 student presentations 15–20 minutes in length and one discussant per panel. Send one-paragraph abstracts for review to <latam_conference@hotmail.com> by Dec. 10, 2002. After approval from review committee, submit 10–15 page papers (2,500–3,500 words) by Jan. 31, 2003. For more info., e-mail <vb2010@columbia.edu> or <latam_conference@hotmail.com>.
➔ 56th Annual Kentucky Foreign Language Conference, April 24–26, 2003, University of Kentucky, Lexington. Conference theme: border crossings (translating text, deed and image; gender and ethnicity across cultures; transculturalism; cross-media translations). Registration fee due Feb. 15, 2003. For more info. visit www.uky.edu/as/kflc, or contact the directors by e-mail: <kflc@uky.edu>.
EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

➔ Head of Advertising Sales Department for Hispanic Newspaper and Radio Rep Firm, San Diego. Experienced bilingual person sought, with documents to work in United States, familiarity with San Diego/Tijuana area, and own car. Company offers base salary plus commissions, career growth potential, and excellent work environment. E-mail résumé to <communications@medicis.tv> or fax to 619/267-5965.

➔ Program Coordinator, Amazon Alliance, Washington, D.C. Plan, develop strategy, and coordinate initiatives in support of Amazonian peoples and their environment in collaboration with Amazon Alliance member organizations. Qualifications include demonstrated commitment to environmental and indigenous rights issues, experience working with indigenous and/or traditional peoples, facilitating collaborative work between diverse partners, undergraduate degree, excellent oral and written communication skills in English and Spanish or Portuguese. Background in environmental studies and skills in media relations helpful. Salary low thirties, generous benefits, three weeks per year paid vacation. Send cover letter, C.V., phone references, and 1–2 page writing sample by Nov. 29 to: Search Committee, Amazon Alliance, 1367 Connecticut Ave. NW, Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20036, or fax to 202/785-3335.

➔ Assistant Professor of Spanish, Illinois Wesleyan University, a tenure-track position to begin August 2003. Preferred candidates will have interest in U.S./Latino/a, Mexican, or Caribbean studies, a firm commitment to teaching a variety of courses. Will require native or near-native ability in Spanish and participation in university-wide intensive writing program and international studies. Send letter of application, C.V. and three letters of recommendation to: Prof. Carmela Ferradáns, Chair, Dept. of Hispanic Studies, P.O. Box 2900, Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, IL 61702. Application review will begin in late November. For more info., visit http://www.iwu.edu/~iwujobs.

➔ Director, TransBorder Institute, University of San Diego. For position criteria, see http://www.TBI.SanDiego.edu or Chronicle of Higher Education. Send inquiries to <TransBorder@SanDiego.edu>. Deadline: Nov. 15, 2002.
EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES (CONT.)

➔ Ethnographers, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies, San Diego. Center seeks applicants for two ethnographer positions for an NIH-funded study of sexuality and HIV prevention with Mexican gay immigrants in San Diego. Study runs through June 2006. Qualifications: MA/MS or equivalent (ABD or PhD preferred); relevant prior experience conducting ethnographic or qualitative research, fluency in Spanish and English; familiarity or academic interest in Latino and gay cultures. Start date: Jan. 1, 2003. Send cover letter, C.V., and names and contact info. of three references to: Dr. Héctor Carrillo, c/o Dept. of Sociology, Univ. of California, San Diego, 9500 Gilman Drive, Dept 0533, La Jolla, CA 92093. For details visit http://www.caps.ucsf.edu/capsweb/jobs/ethnographer.html.

➔ Assistant Professor, Chicana/o Studies, University of Wisconsin, Madison, a tenure-track position. Preferred candidates will have a specialization in the social sciences and comparative or interdisciplinary teaching and research experience. Position will be half-time in Chicana/o Studies and half-time in a tenure-home department. Send letter of application, C.V., sample publications and three letters of recommendation to: Prof. Rubén Medina, Director, Chicana/o Studies Program, University of Wisconsin, 313 Ingraham Hall, 1151 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706. Deadline: Dec. 15, 2002.

Please e-mail submissions by 3:00 p.m. each Friday to:
<hteague@mail.utexas.edu>.