

Calendar

#02.11, Nov. 25–Dec. 1, 2002

University of Texas at Austin
College of Liberal Arts

LLILAS

Spotlight!

PEMEX in the Decade Ahead

Thursday, Nov. 21, 6:00–7:15 P.M., Bass Lecture Hall
(lower ground floor of LBJ School)

A lecture by Ing. Raúl Muñoz Leos, Director General of PEMEX. Part of the Distinguished Mexicans in Texas Lecture Series sponsored by the Mexican Center of LLILAS. For more info., call 232-2423 or e-mail <mexctr@uts.cc.utexas.edu>.

LATE ENTRIES

➔ Thursday, Nov. 21—A Treasured Experience, a lecture by art historian Clara Cioni Bargellini, Universidad Autónoma de México, to accompany the exhibit Treasures of the Cathedral of Saltillo, Mexico. 6:00 P.M., Mexic-Arte Museum, 419 Congress Ave. Free for Museum members, $5 adults, $3 seniors. For info. call 480-9373, ext. 25.

➔ Saturday, Nov. 23—Spirituality in the Arts, a lecture by Father Jairo Lopex regarding the devotional attributes of the works inside Mexican churches. 2:00 P.M., Mexic-Arte Museum, 419 Congress Ave. Free for Museum members, $5 adults, $3 seniors. For info. call 480-9373, ext. 25.

TUESDAY, NOV. 26

➔ 2002 Brazilian Presidential Elections: A New Political Landscape, a presentation by Dr. Renato Janine Ribeiro, Dept. of Philosophy, Universidade de São Paulo. Texas Union 3.116, Governors' Room, 5:00 P.M. Sponsored by the Dept. of Spanish and Portuguese, LLILAS, and the Brazil Center. For more info., contact the Brazil Center at 471-8418.

CONFERENCES AND CALLS FOR PAPERS

➔ Revista de Sociologia e Política, a political science journal of the Universidade Federal del Paraná, Curitiba, Brazil, seeks articles for an issue dedicated to the theme of "International Relations." Submissions must be received by November 30, 2002. For more information, e-mail <contacto@revistasociologiaepolitica.org.br> or visit <http://www.scielo.br/rsocp>.

CONFERENCES AND CALLS FOR PAPERS (CONT.)

→ Robert W. Hamilton Faculty Author Awards. All UT faculty and staff who published books (including scholarly monographs), creative works, exhibition catalogues, textbooks, and edited collections during the 2001–2002 academic year may compete for awards. Grand prize: $10,000; three runners-up: $3,000; fourth prize (for a textbook): $3,000. Authors may nominate themselves by submitting two copies of their work and C.V. to the review committee on or before Nov. 27, 2002: Office of the Vice President and Dean of Graduate Studies, MAI 101, Campus Mail Code G1400. Supporting evidence may include pre-publication reviews as well as published book reviews. Underwritten by the University Co-operative Society. For more info., call 471-2877.

→ Graduate Student Conference on Twentieth-Century Latin America, March 1, 2003, Columbia University History Dept., New York. Conference will focus on modern Latin America, including late nineteenth century, from a variety of disciplinary fields, with 4–5 student presentations 15–20 minutes in length and one discussant per panel. Send one-paragraph abstracts for review to <latam_conference@hotmail.com> by Dec. 10, 2002. After approval from review committee, submit 10–15 page papers (2,500–3,500 words) by Jan. 31, 2003. For more info., e-mail <vb2010@columbia.edu> or <latam_conference@hotmail.com>.

→ 56th Annual Kentucky Foreign Language Conference, April 24–26, 2003, University of Kentucky, Lexington. Conference theme: border crossings (translating text, deed and image; gender and ethnicity across cultures; transculturalism; cross-media translations). Registration fee due Feb. 15, 2003. For more info. visit www.uky.edu/as/kflc, or contact the directors by e-mail: <kflc@uky.edu>.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

→ Ethnographers, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies, San Diego. Center seeks applicants for two ethnographer positions for an NIH-funded study of sexuality and HIV prevention with Mexican gay immigrants in San Diego. Study runs through June 2006. Qualifications: MA/MS or equivalent (ABD or PhD preferred); relevant prior experience conducting ethnographic or qualitative research, fluency in Spanish and English; familiarity or academic interest in Latino and gay cultures. Start date: Jan. 1, 2003. Send cover letter, C.V., and names and contact info. of three references to: Dr. Héctor Carrillo, c/o Dept. of Sociology, Univ. of California, San Diego, 9500 Gilman Drive, Dept 0533, La Jolla, CA 92093. For details visit <http://www.caps.ucsf.edu/capsweb/jobs/ethnographer.html>.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES (CONT.)

→ Part-Time Temporary Assistant to the Curator, San Antonio Museum of Art. Position available Jan. 2003–2004 for Latin American graduate student or postdoc to assist in the preparation of traveling national exhibition The One and Many Faces of Latin American 2000 Portraiture. Requirements: Bilingual Spanish/English; computer expertise; willingness to spend 3 days per week in San Antonio. Salary $20,000. For more info., contact the Mexican Center of LLILAS at 232-2423.

→ Program Coordinator, Amazon Alliance, Washington, D.C. Plan, develop strategy, and coordinate initiatives in support of Amazonian peoples and their environment in collaboration with Amazon Alliance member organizations. Qualifications include demonstrated commitment to environmental and indigenous rights issues, experience working with indigenous and/or traditional peoples, facilitating collaborative work between diverse partners, undergraduate degree, excellent oral and written communication skills in English and Spanish or Portuguese. Background in environmental studies and skills in media relations helpful. Salary low thirties, generous benefits, three weeks per year paid vacation. Send cover letter, C.V., phone references, and 1–2 page writing sample by Nov. 29 to: Search Committee, Amazon Alliance, 1367 Connecticut Ave. NW, Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20036, or fax to 202/785-3335.

→ Assistant Professor, Chicana/o Studies, University of Wisconsin, Madison, a tenure-track position. Preferred candidates will have a specialization in the social sciences and comparative or interdisciplinary teaching and research experience. Position will be half-time in Chicana/o Studies and half-time in a tenure-home department. Send letter of application, C.V., sample publications and three letters of recommendation to: Prof. Rubén Medina, Director, Chicana/o Studies Program, University of Wisconsin, 313 Ingraham Hall, 1151 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706. Deadline: Dec. 15, 2002.

→ Assistant Professorships, Ethnic Studies, University of Colorado, Boulder, two tenure-track positions starting Fall, 2003. Field of specialization is open, but preferred candidates will have research that stresses a comparative, analytical, and relational framework and knowledge of Chicana/o Studies and American Indian Studies. Application review will begin Dec. 15. Send letter of application, C.V., sample publications and three to five references with addresses and phone numbers to: Chair, Search Committee, Dept. of Ethnic Studies, University of Colorado at Boulder, Ketchum 30, 339 UCB, Boulder, CO 80309-0339. Phone: 303/492-8852, fax: 303/492-7799, e-mail: <jose.martinez@colorado.edu>.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES (CONT.)

→ University Lectureship in Brazilian Studies, Area and Development Studies, University of Oxford. Applicants should have a doctorate in economics/international political economy, politics/international relations or sociology/social anthropology in relation to Brazil, and a strong research and publications record. Historians specializing in economic or social history of Brazil since 1930 would also be considered for the post. Person appointed will teach, conduct research, and work with the Director in the development of the Centre for Brazilian Studies. For details e-mail the Centre Administrator, Mrs. Margaret Hancox, <margaret.hancox@brazil.ox.ac.uk>, write to the Centre for Brazilian Studies, 92 Woodstock Road, Oxford OX2 7ND, or visit the Oxford Homepage at www.ox.ac.uk. Applications should be made to Mrs. Hancox; e-mail applications are acceptable. Deadline: Dec. 16, 2002.

NOTE: Next week's Calendar will be the last of the semester and will cover events for Dec. 2-17. E-mail submissions by 3:00 p.m. Friday, Nov. 22, to <hteague@mail.utexas.edu>.

Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies
The University of Texas at Austin
1 University Station D0800
SRH 1.310, Austin, TX 78712-0331, 512/471-5551, fax 471-3090
<http://www.utexas.edu/cola/llilas>

