

El Salvador Week

October 21-25, 2002

Commemorating the ten year anniversary of the peace accords
Examining the challenges facing contemporary Salvadoran society

Tuesday, October 22, 12:00-1:30 p.m.

Brown Bag Lecture, Sid Richardson Hall 1.313

A Comparison of Media Coverage in El Salvador and Central Asia

Dr. Mercedes Lynn de Uriarte, Journalism (bio)

Wednesday, October 23, 12:00-1:30 p.m.

Roundtable Discussion, Sid Richardson Hall 1.320

Building Democracy: The Legislative Modernization Project in El Salvador

Chandler Stolp, LBJ School of Public Affairs (bio)

Eduardo Moreno C., Latin American Studies/LBJ School

Clair Campbell, Latin American Studies/LBJ School

Thursday, October 24, 2:00-4:00 p.m.

Slide Show, Sid Richardson Hall 1.313

From Civil War to Gang War (more)

Donna De Cesare, School of Journalism (bio)

Friday, October 25, 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Lecture and Slide Show, Sid Richardson Hall 1.313

Rural Development and Public Health in El Salvador

Molly Dougherty, Asociación Salvadoreña Pro-Salud Rural

Megan Scarborough, LBJ School

For more information call 512/232-2414.

Sid Richardson Hall is located on Red River St., between E. Dean Keeton St. and Manor Rd. (map)

Sponsored by the Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies, College of Liberal Arts, University of Texas at Austin