

Objectives:

- * The student will identify and explain the different types of human migration.
- * The student will identify the categories of people who migrate and describe the differences among them.
- * The student will identify the reasons people move.

What is Human Migration?

Cues

Human Migration

Notes

the movement of people from one place to another

What are the different types of human migration?

Cues

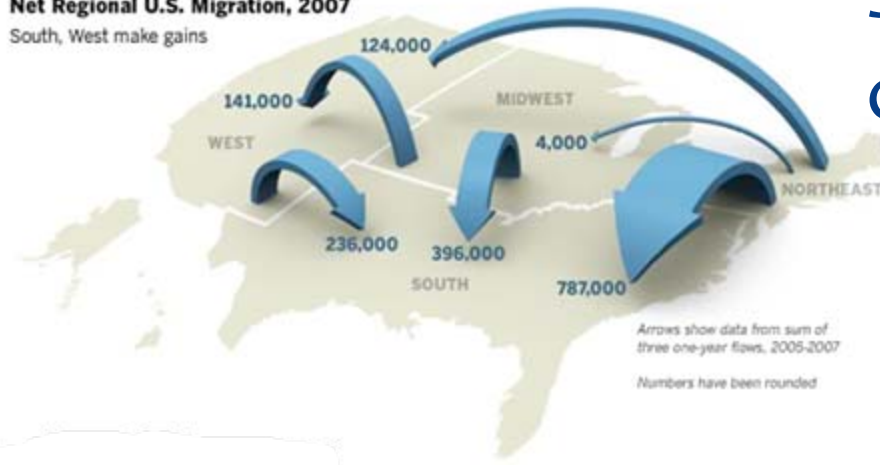

Internal Migration

Notes

moving within a state, country, or continent

Net Regional U.S. Migration, 2007

South, West make gains

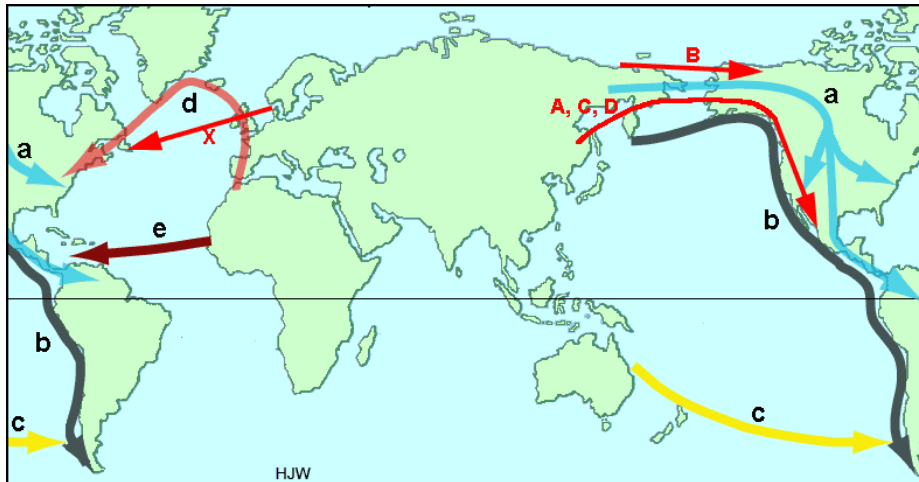

Types of Migration cont.

Cues

External Migration

Notes

moving to a different state, country, or continent

Types of Migration cont.

Cues

Emigration

Notes

leaving one's country to move to another

Can see countries losing population as a result of emigration.

Types of Migration cont.

Cues

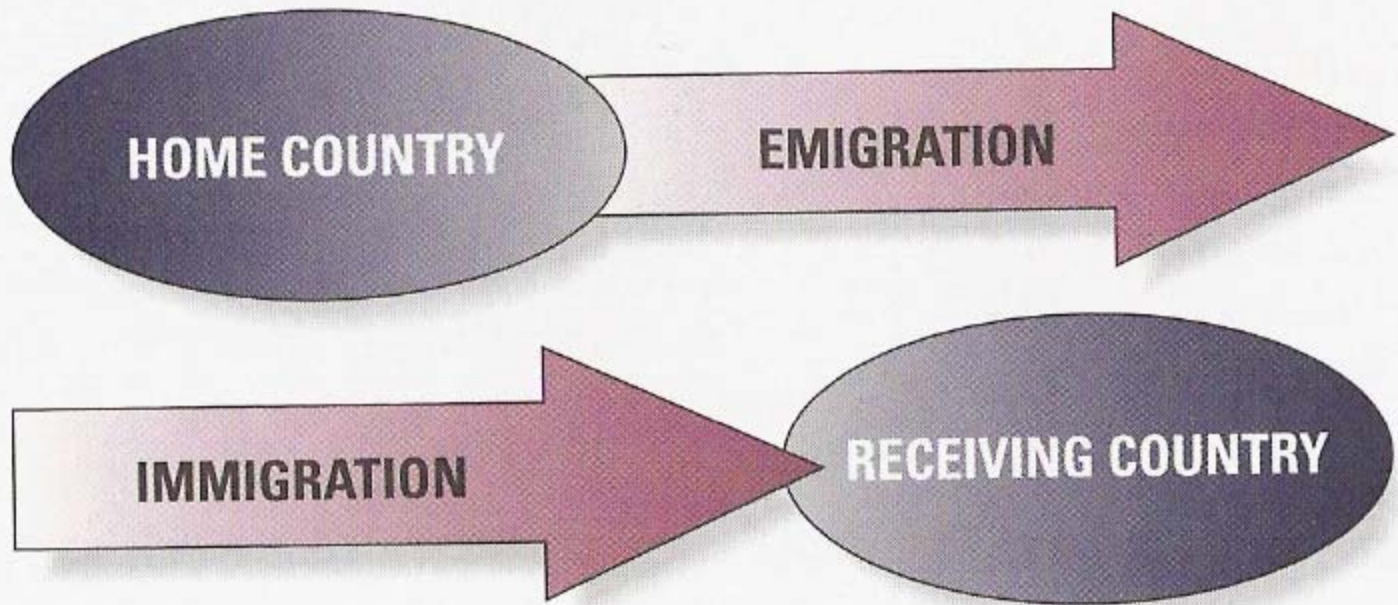

Immigration

Notes

moving to a new country

Can see countries gaining population as a result of immigration.

Types of Migration cont.

Cues

Return Migration

Notes

Moving back to where you came from

Types of Migration cont.

Cues

Seasonal Migration

Notes

moving with each season or in response to work or climate conditions

People Who Migrate

Cues

Emigrant

Polish emigrant boarding ship

Notes

person who is leaving one country to live in another

People Who Migrate cont.

Cues

Immigrant

Notes

a person who is entering a country from another to make a new home

Immigrants waiting for entry at Ellis Island, New York.

People Who Migrate cont.

Cues

Refugee

Notes

a person who has moved to a new country because of a problem in their former home

Why do people move?

Cues

Push factors

Examples

Notes

forces that drive people away from a place

food shortages,
crime, war,
floods, lack of
services

Why do people move?

Cues

Pull Factors

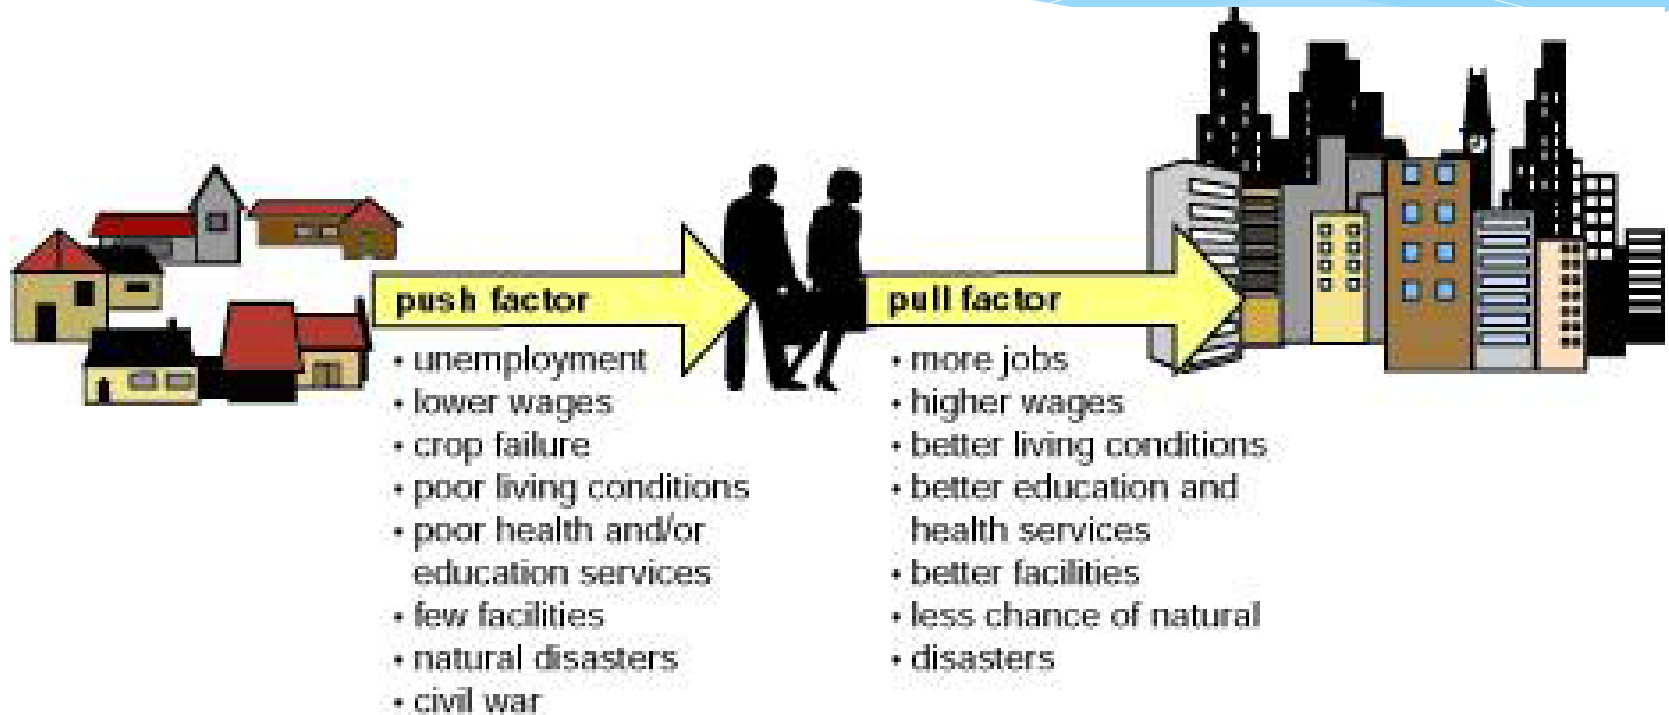

forces that draw
people to immigrate
to a place

Notes

Examples

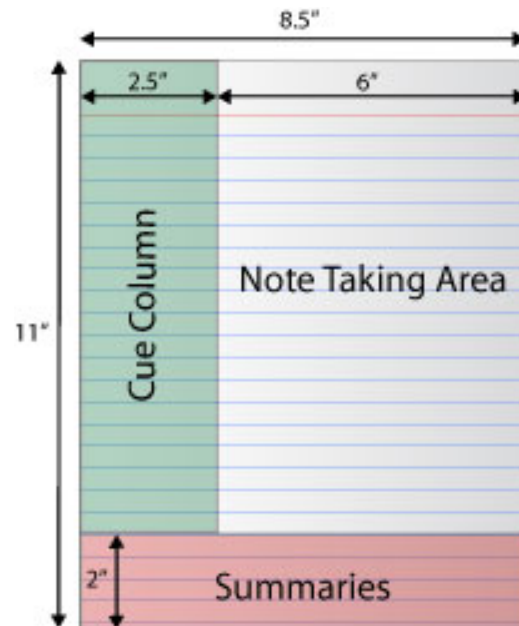

political stability,
nicer climate, job
opportunities, safety

Push and Pull Factors

Cornell Notes Summary

Take the next five minutes to write your summary for this section of notes.

Work Cited

National Geographic Xpeditions. (n.d.).
Migration: Reasons to move. Retrieved from <http://www.nationalgeographic.com/xpeditions/lessons/09/g35/Migrations.html>